Page 1: Additional Content

This is a second test document that we'll use to test the PDF merging functionality in ImageWhiz.

We'll merge this with the first document to create a combined PDF file.

Page 2: More Information

This page contains different content that we can use to clearly distinguish it from the first document.

When merged, we should be able to see the content from both documents combined into one PDF.